Qualifications to be considered for Recognition of Prior Learning

Students seeking Recognition of Prior Learning will fit into one of the following categories. All categories below refer to New Zealand qualifications or overseas qualifications assessed by New Zealand Qualifications Authority. You can bring the original documentation to the College Reception to have them certified or provide certified copies. This means a photocopy of your original document, signed as being a true and accurate copy by a justice of the peace (JP), solicitor, Minister of the Church, General Practitioner or School Principal. Documentation must include final qualifications and transcripts which detail the learning outcomes of the course(s) studied. A summary of learning outcomes is also required for all New Zealand qualifications.
